

Storm Damage Reports

A photograph showing significant storm damage to a roof. The foreground is dominated by a large, dark, cylindrical object, likely a roll of roofing material, lying on a surface of gravel and debris. The background shows a roof with missing shingles and exposed wooden rafters, indicating structural damage. The overall scene is dimly lit, suggesting an overcast day or the aftermath of a storm.